TUESDAY AFTERNOON, JAN. 4.

IF the Rome Courier will look into the matter carefully, it will find that Gov. Brown's name was brought into the convention as a compromise, and that he was thereupon nominated by acclamation. No democrat has ever been nominated for governor in Georgia under the two-thirds rule.

THE semi-annual meeting of the Augusta factory was held last week. The books show that during the last six months 6,874,800 yards of goods manufactured. The gross earnings were $22,971, and the net earnings $22,365. "This very favorable financial showing," says the Constitutionalist, must inspire confidence among the stockholders, and prove that the affairs of the factory are in the hands of those who are carefully and economically administering them.

THE state grange of Missouri has requested subordinate granges throughout the state to forward samples for exhibition at Philadelphia, especially of grain and other farm products. Each farmer who sends a sample is requested to state the place of growth, nature of soil, climate and average yield per acre. All this will be done to attract the attention of immigrants and investors to Missouri. If Georgia is to be worthily represented the powerful grange organization must do its part. But nothing can be done until the legislature decides whether it will make an appropriation or not to pay necessary transportation charges.

THE Cuthbert Appeal advises farmers to let a part of their lands "lie out" rather than make unprofitable contracts for labor and supplies. It adds:

In 1866—7, when cotton was at three times the price now paid for it, the price of field hands took its grade. They have ever since insisted on the rate of compensation then paid, or something approximating it. Farmers, in their anxiety to plant all their land, and plow all their mules, have agreed to pay the prices demanded for labor, and then bought the bacon and corn to feed the laborers and stock at high rates for credit. They have done this every year in the hope of big crops and high prices. By the caterpillars and dry weather their crops in this section have been cut down, while the general crops being large, the prices have been low. They can now look back on their mistaken course, and see that they have their losses for their pains and labor, while the laborers have had a support, and are now free and out of debt. Will not the people of this section learn to cut the garment according to the cloth?

WE have a sublime belief that Mr. Pendleton never told any body down south that nine-tenths of the people of Ohio were in favor of a return to specie payments. We never knew Mr Pendleton to tell a lie, and were waiting for a disclaimer from him. Cincinnati Enquirer (Dem.)

THE necessity of maintaining public schools of a high standard of excellence begins to be felt by every enterprising town in the state. The Augusta Chronicle says:

The Macon Telegraph calls attention to the fact that the county tax of sixty cents on the one hundred dollars paid by the people of Bibb includes the money expended for the support of a system of public schools. The Telegraph says that these schools in Macon are of such a grade that they are patronized by every citizen who has children to educate. If this be the case, Macon has no reason to complain, for the saying in tuition to each head of a family is very great and equals four times the amount of tax levied. In Richmond, we are not so fortunate. Here the county tax property is unusually small—being only twenty-five cents on the one hundred dollars. But the county board of education levies a school tax of about twenty-one thousand dollars per annum. The schools maintained with this tax are not of a grade to benefit a large proportion of those who pay the taxes for their support. The citizen pays his school tax and in addition pays the tuition of his children at private schools. This is all wrong. If we are to have a public school system in this county it should be operated so as to do way with this onerous and unjust double taxation. The citizen who support should have some of the benefits of the schools. Let us have schools of such a grade that they can be patronized by the whole community.

THE Athens Georgian furnishes the following sketch of the busy life of one of the ex-journalists of Georgia:

William Montague Browne, was born in Ireland A. D. 1823. He was educated at Rugby, under the famous Doctor Arnold, and at Trinity College, Dublin, whence he graduated with first honors in classics and mental philosophy. Having spent many years in foreign travel he came to the United States about twenty-six years ago, and soon thereafter became prominently connected with the press as one of the editors of the New York Journal of Commerce. Having taken a leading part, both as a political writer and speaker in the presidential campaign of 1856, taking sides with the southern states rights democracy of the straitest sect, he was invited in 1857 by President Buchanan to assume the chief editorship of the Constitution, the Washington organ of his administration, which position Gen. B. filled till the beginning of 1861, when he discontinued the publication of his paper and came to Athens, Georgia, where he had previously established his home. At the formation of the government of the Confederate states, he was appointed assistant secretary of state, but after a few months' service he resigned the civil appointment and entered the Confederate states army and was assigned to command the troops for the defence of Richmond, being also an aid-de-camp on the staff of President Davis. In 1864, Gen. Browne was assigned to duty in Georgia, when, towards the end of the year, he was promoted to the command of a brigade in the corps of Gen. W. J. Hardee. After the surrender, Gen. B. returned to Athens and devoted himself to agricultural and literary pursuits. In 1874, he was leected to the chair of history and political science in the university of Georgia, which was created some years before, Hon. Alex. H. Stephens having been elected to fill it, but obliged to resign in consequence of ill health.

AN enterprising interviewer asked Mr. ... what he thought of the third-term, ... statesman replied: "Well, that ..., as Mr Grant ob- ... t. If all goes ... to

MR. KERR'S health does not improve much, but he expects to be able to preside at the reassembling of the house. There is no doubt, however, that it will be necessary to elect a speaker pro tem. immediately to relieve Mr. Kerr who will take a trip to Florida if his health continues in its present condition.

ONE hundred thousand dollars saved! This is a record of which any city council may be proud, and it is one that is destined to tell upon the future of Atlanta. The bonds of the city will almost surely appreciate. For all this we owe thanks to our new charter and an efficient administration under it.

THE Macon Telegraph states that the friends of Mr. Robert U. Hardeman, of Macon, will present him to the general assembly as a candidate for state treasurer, and speaks of him in very high terms. He is a brother of Col. Thos. Hardeman, the popular Speaker of the House.

GOV. SMITH has commissioned Col. B. W. Frobel to represent the state at the next meeting of the "national board of navigation commissioners." Each state is entitled to one delegate. The appointment of Col. Frobel is a well merited tribute to his efforts and services in behalf of the improvement of our rivers and the opening of a great water line across the state.

It is said that the main difference between the bill that will be submitted by the Pacific railroad committee and the one of last winter is that the greater guarantee for the repayment of subsidies advanced than the former bill. The new bill provides for branches running to Vicksburg, Memphis and Marshall. Its provisions are kept quite secret by the majority of the members of the committee, but from this fact it is said that an attempt is being made by the southern members to have the road entirely under the control of southern men, leaving Tom Scott out in the cold altogether. This is the most probable version of the bill, but the fact that Mr. Scott is left out is very secret, in order to avoid his opposition.

A WASHINGTON dispatch to the Cincinnati Enquirer says there is a strong but quiet movement on foot to push Senator Thurman for the presidential nomination. It is engineered mainly by leading ex-Confederate senators and representatives, prominent among whom are Cockrell, of Missouri; Gordon and Lamar, together with several of the most influential supporters of Mr. Kerr in the contest for the speakership who were not in the Tilden programme. This movement is rapidly gaining ground, and bids fair to result in bringing up a nearly solid support for Thurman from the southern states to the national convention of the democracy, unless the influences at work here are counteracted by the friends of Mr. Pendleton and Mr. Hendricks elsewhere."

THE congressional recess commences this morning. The first business in order in the senate will be Mr. Morton's [illegible] appointing a committee upon [illegible] Mississippi elections. This will be [illegible]ed, but its passage is not certain, as [illegible]nations have been made to democratic senators that the republicans will be divided on the subject. In this connection it may be stated that prominent republicans from Mississippi in Washington say that the vote of that state in the next national republican convention will be for Governor Morton for president. In the house of representatives the first business in order will be Hon. Sam Randall's resolution calling for information in relation to the whisky frauds. This will probably pass, with the usual limitation, allowing the withholding of papers, the publication of which would prejudice the public interests.

PRESIDENTIAL SPECULATIONS.

A Philadelphia correspondent of the New York Tribune recently interviewed "a prominent democratic congressman—one of the half dozen men who are expected to shape the action of the house this winter," and from him obtained some figures "based upon the present political situation." He begins with a list of the electoral votes of which the democratic party is sure, no matter [illegible]may nominate for president. It [illegible]ces every one of the old slave states [illegible]t South Carolina, as follows:

[illegible]nessee	10	Kentucky	12
Arkansas	6	Louisiana	8
Delaware	3	Maryland	8
Florida	4	Mississippi	8
Georgia	11	Missouri	15
North Carolina	10	Texas	8
Tennessee	12	Virginia	11
West Virginia	5
Total			132

He then gives a list of the republican states supposed to be sure:

Maine	7	Illinois	21
New Hampshire	5	Iowa	22
Vermont	5	Minnesota	5
Massachusetts	13	Nebraska	3
Rhode Island	4	Kansas	5
Pennsylvania	29	Colorado	3
[illegible]	22	Nevada	3
[illegible]	11	South Carolina	7
[illegible]	10
	164

[illegible]aves, as the fighting ground of [illegible]paign, the following doubtful

[illegible]ticut	6	California	6
[illegible]York	35	Oregon	3
[illegible] Jersey	9	Indiana	15
Total			68

[illegible] whole number of electoral votes [illegible]and the number required to elect [illegible]ates need [illegible]otes 34, while the [illegible] only 21. In [illegible] says the New [illegible] the democrats cannot [illegible] president without New [illegible]ntiana can. Those two [illegible] of the next elec-

[illegible]s a very pretty presentation of [illegible] York side of the case, and [illegible] very truthful and suggestive [illegible] are some points in the [illegible] plan does not [illegible]. It affords no line of escape from defeat if the democrats do not succeed in New York. If the republicans should nominate a man Conkling or Morgan or Fenton—who could carry New York through state pride, where are the fifty-four democratic votes, after a desperate attempt, both in the democratic candidates and platform to carry New York, to come from? The Tribune's plan makes all depend upon the hazard of a single state. This is clearly not advisable unless the situation absolutely demands it, and that is far from certain. We do not believe for a moment that New York can be carried by the republicans. The state is democratic and the only republican who could carry it is Fenton. The republican politicians will not permit his nomination.

The nomination of Grant would, of course, upset the Pennsylvania congressman's calculations. In that case Massachusetts, Ohio, Wisconsin, New Hampshire, Minnesota, Illinois, and perhaps other states would be transferred to the democratic column. The nomination of Grant would give the democrats a walk-over, and for that very reason Grant stands no more chance of nomination than the man in the moon. The fifteen southern states that can give the republican ticket only seven electoral votes will not be permitted to impose the man on horseback again on a patient people, whether he gets up a war with Spain or not.

As the canvass now stands the republican nominee will be either Bristow or Blaine. The nomination of the former depends to great extent upon the results of the campaign against crooked whisky; for with Bristow the republican party would have the effrontery to go before the people as the party of retrenchment and reform. The house of representatives will take that conceit out of the party of corruption and extravagance very thoroughly this winter, and the good sense of the people will finish the job next fall.

Blaine's candidature would indicate a know-nothing campaign under the banners of the O. A. U. Here let us give the concluding words of the Tribune's democratic congressman: "We shall undermine them by putting the Blaine amendment through the house right after the recess. The senate will then be in a dilemma. If it votes the amendment, it goes before the state legislatures this winter for ratification, and the question is thus taken out of politics. If the senate rejects the amendment, then it goes before to the country in the canvass with the democratic branch of congress on record in favor of it and the republican branch opposed to it. So you see we are not to be tripped up by the false issue our enemies are trying industriously to raise. We intend to pass Mr. Randall's one term amendment, too, and let the senate defeat it if it dare. Beaten by republican votes, it becomes a leading issue in the campaign; adopted, it is a tall feather in our caps. Nobody can say that the democratic house has done nothing, if it accomplishes the great reform of restricting the president to a single term of six years."

MARTINDALE'S UNITED STATES LAW DIRECTORY.

This work as its name indicates is a complete directory of reliable practicing attorneys in every county in the United States. It is arranged and published by J. B. Martindale, general manager of the "Martindale law and collection association," New York. The object of the author has been to prepare a standard work of reference for the use of merchants and business men generally.

For all wholesale dealers doing business under a system of credits and collections, this is a guide to the statutes and law of collections in every state. The compilation of such a work is no easy task, the book before us containing over eight hundred pages. A volume of such general importance as this cannot avoid having a rapid sale. Our readers will find it on the counters of M. Lynch & Co., Whitehall street.

FACT AND COMMENT.

No one has nominated Judd Doble for president. He'd have the inside track, sure.

WABASH college forbids gambling among the students, and the boys plaintively inquire how they can ever be appointed minister to England without a knowledge of poker.

THE Alabama legislature is making out a very bad case against Senator Spencer. Evidently he is not an honor to the state, or to the United States senate.—St. Louis Globe (Rad.)

A MADRID paper says that Gen. Jovellar, the new captain general, will put an end to all abuses in Cuba. As that would involve putting an end to himself, the statement is probably unauthorized.

THE Virginian's future world: A place where the good Virginians shall forever make speeches to the bad Virginians, and the bad Virginians must forever listen without reply.—Richmond Enquirer.

WITHOUT giving any authority for his knowledge, a Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial makes this assertion: "Bishop Ames is for Grant; if not openly, with all the force of a sleepless, persistent, and potent will."

HERE it is at last; Ah Flynn, a heathen Chinee, of Adair county, announces that he will run for the next legislature. He believes that Chinamen he lun belly well, alice samee as Melican man; get dlunk and do heap talkee talkee.

THE president does not find it expedient to observe the requirements of friendship toward Bristow now as he did some months ago, and Bristow would be removed tomorrow if Grant dared to face the storm of indignation that the act would bring upon him.—Boston Post.

THE New York Herald is a wonderful journal. It confounds Chief Justice Waite, of the United States supreme court, with Chief Justice White, of Utah, and eulogizes the former as having pronounced the doom of polygamy from the highest judicial tribunal in the land. The Herald dips into the future a good deal further than any other human eye can see.—Toledo Blade.

WE hope that congress will ascertain if possible what General Grant is doing. The Cuban question is one of great delicacy and danger, and the president is not fit to be trusted with it. He has an inflated idea of his own duties and privileges in the matter, and a misconception of the popular temper, and in his present state of mind he is capable of doing great harm. Let us have light.—N. Y. Tribune.

THE Missouri State Lottery long maintained itself as a legalized business, because it had a contract with the state in which it agreed to devote a percentage of its receipts to certain public purposes. This theory has been overthrown by a trial, and the police of St. Louis have been ordered to stop the sale of tickets in that city. Incidentally it was shown that the lottery made a clear profit of $6,000 a month.

THERE are some queer incongruities in the salaries paid to state officers in Michigan. The governor draws a salary of but $1,000 while that of the railroad commissioner is $4,000. The salaries of the secretary of state, commissioner of the land office and attorney general are $800, and those are the only state functionaries drawing less compensation than the governor.

MR. DISRAELI'S views on woman suffrage have come to light in the following letter written in 1873: "I was much honored by receiving from your hands the memorial signed by 21,000 women of England, and those illustrious names, thanks for services in attempting to [illegible] that parliamentary franchise attached household or property qualification, when possessed by a woman, should not be exercised, though in all matter of local government, when similarly qualified, she exercises this right. As I believe this anomaly to be injurious to the best interests of the country, I trust to see it removed by the wisdom of parliament."

THE only newspaper in the United States to censure Gov. Chamberlain of South Carolina for trying to keep Moses and Whipper from the bench is the favorite White House organ at Washington. It thus comments: "Gov. Chamberlain has been inveigled into a path of political turpitude, which must eventually end in his personal political destruction. By a shrewd and carefully prepared scheme the democracy have succeeded in making him a pseudo apostate from his party constituency, and securing his gubernatorial influence to further their efforts in overthrowing the republican power in the state." So Moses and Whipper are admitted to be the representatives of the "republican power in the state?" That is justification enough of the governor's "pseudo-apostasy."—N. Y. Tribune.

THE evidence accumulates that an investigation into Mississippi politics would cut both ways, and probably damage the republicans more than the democrats. At any rate, we are told that the president made a little investigation, in order to satisfy himself whether he should keep the Ames or the anti-Ames republicans in office, and his agent brought back word that, while there was a great deal of intimidation of the negroes by the democrats in the election, the Ames republican administration had been so inefficient and corrupt, as almost to justify the democrats in any conduct in order to turn it out, and that he, the said agent, though a truly loyal republican, would have acted with the democratic party if he had lived in Mississippi. Since which, the president has been anti-Ames.

JAMES ROBINSON, colored, the owner of the "Robinson" house on the Bull Run battlefield, near Manassas, Va., died a few days since. He witnessed both of the memorable battles, remaining on his place with his family during those terrible scenes of blood. His house received hundreds of bullets and one solid twenty-four pounder, which went through a bed room, carrying one post of a bed upon which lay a sick Confederate soldier. He witnessed the death of the Confederate generals Bee and Bartow, both of whom were killed within a hundred yards of his door. He saw the marble monument erected to their memory and saw the federal soldiers destroy it at the second battle. He gathered up the fragments and preserved them, and up to the time of his death would give visitors to the battlefield, who desired it, a small piece of the marble as a momento.

OLD WORLD TROUBLES.

Carlism in Spain, MacMahonism in France, and a Few Murmurings from other Localities.

MADRID, January 4.—The council of ministers under the presidency of the king has finally settled a plan of campaign against the Carlists.

VIENNA, Jan. 6.—The Spanish cabinet learned from a confidential quarter in the middle of December the contents of a circular note of the United States to European powers regarding Cuba and Spain, and thereupon instructed her representatives to explain to the various governments that the Cuban question not only affected American, but European interests, and that complications between the United States and Spain might have incalculable consequences for Europe, as they would encourage the Carlists to make a prolonged resistance and revive the hopes of the federalists, republicans and socialists. The Austrian government received these declarations in a friendly manner and will not reply to the long American dispatch which was only read to Count Andrassy, and which not only repudiates any intention of annexing Cuba but in reality contains no definite conclusion.

LONDON, January 4.—A telegram to the Times from Berlin says, the Russians, apprehending another attack from the unannexed portion of Khokand, are preparing to cross the Syrdaria and occupy Marghelan and Undergat. The campaign will probably begin about the middle of January, and may probably result in the annexation of southern Khokand.

A special from Vienna to the Standard reports that the resignation of Prince Von Aursperg, president of the Austrian cabinet, is feared, in consequence of differences with Hungary on the currency question.

LONDON, Jan. 4.—The standard has a letter from Madrid saying Segasta, Ulloa, Calmenazes and Ortise forming a junta of the constitutional party, have issued a circular urging participation in the coming elections for cortes. It says the government has promised the strictest neutrality on the part of its agents, but denies that any contract has been made with the government whereby party's principles are abdicated. It is stated that the constitutional party expect to secure from 115 to 120 seats in the new cortes.

PARIS, January 4.—Gambetta has announced his intention of coming forward as a candidate for the chamber of deputies in Paris, Lyons, Marseilles, Lille and Bordeaux. His purpose in doing so is to ascertain the judgment of the large cities upon the policy of the compromise which he espoused during the latter part of the session.

The Moniteur gives notice that the government will not support the Bonapartist candidates in the coming elections.

Autrey, minister plenipotentiary, has gone to Egypt on a special mission.

The Pall Mall Gazette is informed that Lord Northbrook will return to England in April next, and Lord Lytton will be appointed to succeed him as viceroy of India.

The India office confirms the appointment of Lord Lytton as viceroy of India in place of Lord Northbrook, who retires because he does not feel able to sustain the labors of the office during another summer. He will be created an earl.

HOW TO HAVE GOOD ROADS.

How Bibb County Does It.

MACON, Dec. 31, 1875.

EDITORS CONSTITUTION: I have read Mr. Haygood's letters on "good roads," and wish to say to him and the balance of the people who wish to have good roads, to follow the example of Bibb county. In 1871 our worthy representative, A. D. Bacon, and Senator T. J. Simmons, introduced and passed a local law for Bibb, to-wit: to work the convicts of the county on the public roads of the county. The law has been a blessing. We now have the best roads in the state. Every public road in the county is a turnpike, and you can start in your buggy from Macon and trot to the county line without breaking the trot.

Before the passage of this law it was almost impossible for six mules to pull an empty wagon to town in the winter season. Now, at any and all seasons, a full load can be brought. It saves to the farmers thousands of dollars yearly in the wear and tear of their mules and wagons. All that it costs the county is feeding the convicts and paying the guard and superintendent of roads.

Let other counties try it, if they wish good roads. BIBB.

The Treasurer.

We clip the following from the Griffin News. It is very complimentary to the new treasurer, and fully endorses the opinions expressed by the press generally:

We believe Governor Smith has done the state a good service in the appointment of the present incumbent, Treasurer Renfro, to fill the unexpired term of Mr Jones, and we trust the appointment may receive the unanimous confirmation of the legislature when it assembles. Mr Renfroe is a man of sterling honesty, a thorough business man, and from his long connection with the comptroller's office, is entirely familiar with the intricate details of a position requiring the [illegible]minute and careful attention.

We have no word of opposition to offer against those who wish to supercede him before the general assembly, but we believe that body will hesitate to project a change in this office again, when so much remains to be done to recover it from chaos and past mismanagement, and render it systematized for the transaction of business. In other words, the deposition of the present incumbent, when he has become master of the situation, for the substitution of another unfamiliar with the management of this department, would be exceedingly unfortunate and unwise. At this time, and we believe the legislature will so regard it.

SEEKING REDRESS.

A Quo Warranto in Baltimore—Beecher's New Trial—A Huge Land Case.

NEW YORK, January 4.—Bowen's libel suit against the Eagle and Mr. McDermott, was settled by an agreement of counsel.

A nolle prosequi was entered in the case of Loader, indicted for perjury in the Beecher case.

The forthcoming mutual council of Congregational churches to take into consideration the differences existing between Plymouth church and Mrs Moulton, is to consist of five delegates at large and pastors, and two delegates from ten churches on each side. The names of these pastors, churches, and lay delegates will not be announced. They have been invited to participate in the council, and signified their willingness to do so.

BALTIMORE, January 4.—Henry M. Warfield, reform candidate for mayor, at the election in October, has instituted proceedings contesting the election of Gen F C Latrobe, democratic candidate, who has been installed in office.

ST. LOUIS, January 4.—The celebrated land case under title of Benjamin Scull, et al., heirs of Don Joseph Valliere, William H Duryea et al., grantees of heirs of Valliere and John Wilson, plaintiffs, vs The United States, defendant, was argued yesterday before Judge Krekel, of the United States district court at Jefferson City. The cases involve some six millions acres of land along White river in southwestern Missouri, and southeastern Arkansas. It is estimated to be worth $150,000,000. The plaintiffs seek a confirmation of certain land grants alleged to have been given Col Valliere by the Spanish government for military service. About one-third of the contested property is owned and occupied by persons under grants from the United States, and numerous towns, villages and cultivated farms exist thereon. Judge Krekel took the case under advisement, and will render a decision about the first of February.

SATAN'S SERVANTS.

His Langmaid's Murder—A Fight at Sea—Attacked by Highwaymen.

CONCORD, January 4.—The trial of LaPage for alleged murder of Josie Langmaid, at Pembroke, commenced before Chief Justice W. L. Foster and Associate Justice Rand. An immense assembly filled the court room. The prisoner was seemingly indifferent. The jury was completed, and will proceed to Pembroke to-morrow to view the scene.

NEW YORK, January 4.—While the British brig Neptune, of Brereton, England, on her way to this port from Rio Janeiro, Thomas Stewart, colored steward, made an assault on mate Richard Buckingham, cutting him in a most horrible manner, with a large carving knife. On the arrival of the brig here, Stewart was arrested, and is held to await the action of the British consul.

HARVERHILL, December 4.—Arthur P. Devlin, who has been lecturing as a reformed Catholic, and severely denouncing the Catholic church, was arrested and committed in default of bail, on charge of blackmail. His speeches and denunciations of catholicism created quite an excitement here.

BROOKLYN, January 4.—John Johnson, boat builder, was shot and mortally wounded, by two highwaymen, a short distance from his house. They demanded four hundred dollars, but on looking in Johnson's face, said "he is the wrong person," and ran away.

Chas. Smith, intoxicated, beat and kicked his wife fatally.

Reubenstein, the alleged murderer of the Jewess Sarah Alexander, was arraigned and plead not guilty to the charge of murder in the 1st degree. The trial is set for next Monday.

TILDEN'S MESSAGE.

The Old Bachelor Leaves National Matters Alone.

ALBANY, January 4.—In Governor Tilden's message, after the common schools, mentioned only in the submission of their statistics, nothing is said of the sectarian question, of the constitutional amendments proposed by the president and Mr. Blaine, or of the gray nun's act. The governor dwells at length upon the financial condition of the country. Among the causes of great and protracted depressions he includes extravagant expenditures of the public money. The federal, state and local taxation was in 1850 $3.57 for each inhabitant, in 1860 it was $4.90, in 1870 it was $18.91. It will be difficult to add anything to the force of these figures. The whole amount of money raised by taxation in the last 11 years is more than $7,500,000,000. The remedy for the existing evils, the governor holds, is in a return to sound principles of government, and prosperity must rest upon the old foundation. There is a popular revolt at "financial quackery." The governor comments severely upon the expedients of quacks and finds no safety but in the restoration of an honest currency. He has no sympathy with the theorists, who after eleven years of convulsion without restoration, are now clamoring for restoration in an hour of convulsion. He sees no danger of a convulsion in a return to specie payments.

TICKETED THROUGH.

Judge Ganzevoort, Harrison Grambo, Anthony Rothschild, Etc.

ALBANY, N. Y., January 4.—Judge Peter Ganzevoort is dead. He was a son of Gen. Ganzevoort.

PHILADELPHIA, January 4.—Harrison Grambo, a very prominent operator in real estate, is dead.

LONDON, January 4.—Sir Anthony Rothschild is dead.

M. Jules de Mohl, the oriental scholar and a member of the institute, is dead.

French Affairs.

PARIS, Jan'y 4.—The Moniteur publishes a letter from M. Buffet to the prefect of the department of Lat. The minister says that the government deems it their duty to take up Marshal Canrobert as a candidate for the senate, because of his patriotic conduct in refusing any nomination which might appear to be hostile to President MacMahon. This letter is viewed in some quarters with dissatisfaction, as it is open to the construction of designating Canrobert as the successor of MacMahon.

Troubles on the Frontier.

MUSKOGEE, I. T., January 4.—By direction of the secretary of the interior, Major Upham, commandant at Fort Gibson, has taken possession of the office, papers and vouchers of the Indian agency at this place. The agency was under the charge of Major G. W. Ingalls. The alleged cause is misapplication of public funds. Major Ingalls is absent.

The Erie Railroad.

LONDON, Jan. 4.—An adjourned meeting of the Erie boudholders took place to-day to consider the proposition recentlymade by the Watkins committee. Sir Edward Watkins moved that the scheme of the committee be adopted in principle, subject to such modification of the minor details as the committee may think necessary after consultation with President Jewell and American stock and bondholders. A resolution that a committee be appointed and empowered to execute the scheme, and that Gov. Tilden, of New York, be invited to act as referee and decide all questions that might arise in its completion and arrangement, was unanimously adopted.

The Pool Fo'ks.

CHICAGO, Jan. 4.—The general freight agents of the eastern pool lines held a meeting for the purpose of equalizing local rates. This was the only business transacted. It is reported that rates east are weakening and will shortly be reduced.

Washington News.

WASHINGTON, January 4.—The committee on privileges and elections met to consider the resolution providing for the election of a president pro tem, which was referred to them. Only four members were present, who discussed the question informally. Another meeting will be held to-morrow. There is considerable diversity of opinion among the committee.

The Next Regatta—Fire and Ice—Afloat.

ALBANY, January 4.—The river in front of this city is entirely free of ice. The sudden opening was made in the havoc with the boats fastened in and above Stuyvesant.

CAPE HENRY, January 4.—The bark Emily Baribino floated, and proceeded to Norfolk by a tow and wrecking tug.

NEW YORK, January 4.—A convention of delegates to the boating association of the American colleges was held to-day. Representatives were present from Cornell, Princeton, Columbia, Union, Hamilton, Harvard, Dartmouth, Bowdoin, Ampest, Williams, Trinity and Brown. The question as to where the next regatta should be held was debated. Some were in favor of New London, but Saratoga was selected by a vote of 4 to 9.

NEW YORK, January 4.—The boating convention received a letter from the Yale boating association, withdrawing from the American association, was read and accepted. Another letter was received from the Harvard association, giving notice of its withdrawal after the next race, win or lose. A communication was received from the Trinity college boat club of Dublin, regretting their inability to accept the invitation to participate in the regatta of 1876. The Cambridge university club of England sent word that the challenge of the American association could not be considered until the next university term.

A resolution was adopted, requiring certificates, that each member of a boat crew has been a student of a college nine months prior to the race.

On Fire.

BOSTON, January 4.—Biddle's carriage factory, with six tenements, burned. Loss, $50,000. A man who entered after tools was burned to death.

UTICA, N. Y., January 4.—The Oriskany woolen mill is burned. Loss, $50,000. Eighty employees ousted.

—Young man, this is the year when your indiscretions, your slips of vanity, will come home to roost upon your empty head. This is the year when the young woman you used to wink at and smile upon in the street will like sunbeams pass you by, and the ancient order of females will appropriate to themselves the pleasure of coming down upon you in payment for all the unnecessary sweetness you have wasted on their sex. Do you look out. Look not upon the female nose when it is red; do not suffer yourself to be approached by a bald-head covered with millinery. Hereafter carry yourself straight and don't annoy the girls. Have nothing to do with any maiden, no matter if she is your own great-grandmother. In total abstinence only lies safety.

—He was the proprietor of a restaurant and a prominent member of a fashionable church. When the brethren passed round to collect his subscriptions, he fumbled in his pocket for his slip, drew out a number of papers and dropped one in the plate. The next day he was astonished to receive it back again, and much more astonished upon opening it to perceive that he had contributed, not exactly a subscription, but a paper bearing the legend, "Good for twelve drinks."

—The New Orleans Picayune regards it as a beautiful illustration of the delicate honor of the Louisianians that the horse car companies do not find it necessary to employ conductors, the passengers all paying their fares with spontaneous honesty. It thinks, too, "that this fashion of throwing people upon their honor cultivates integrity and develops and confirms a habit of honesty and truthfulness."

—Mrs. Joyce does not propose to ask for her husband's pardon. She is going to try to earn her own living for awhile as she did before her marriage, or, to use her own words, she "will try and be a woman outside, while he is a man inside." The little lady was full of pluck and courage, and has an abiding faith in her husband's innocence.

Important to Parents and Guardians.

MOUNT DE CHANTAL

Academy of the Visitation,

NEAR WHEELING, W. VIRGINIA.

PARENTS in quest of a first class school for their daughters, will do well to investigate the claims of the celebrated Academy. For thoroughness in every department of female education, Mt. de Chantal ranks pre eminently high. Great attention is given to perfect the pupils in writing and speaking French with fluency. For those sufficiently advanced, it is the language of their recreation hours. The purity of accent and correctness of pronunciation acquired in this Institution have long been a subject of surprise to the native Parisian. The renown for the superiority in music is so wide spread as to have made this Academy almost a national one. One feature, in particular, that should recommend Mt. de Chantal to the sensible parent, is the influence exercised to form the pupils to views and habits of economy, and to render them really practical and useful woman of society in after years. Simplicity of dress is enforced by rule.

These facts, united to the exceedingly moderate rates of board and tuition ($400 per annum), will, we trust, secure to this school as large and desirable a patronage in the future as it has enjoyed in the past

MASONIC BANQUET.

Installation Ceremonies at the Georgia Lodge Last Night.

Last evening was set apart in Georgia lodge of the masonic fraternity for the installation of the newly elected officials.

After the ceremonies of installation had been concluded and the following officers declared potent in their places:

W D Luckie, W. M.; Dr. Lea, S. W.; M. Rich, J. W.; L C Jones, secretary; R H Goodman, treasurer.

The members of the fraternity were invited to sit down to provided for them in an adjoining room. This summons "from labor to refreshment" was duly honored.

The table was handsomely spread and the guests united in pronouncing it as tasteful (no pun) and superb as any ever before prepared upon like occasion.

The seat set apart to the late Joseph B. Bridges, a brother, was draped in mourning, and an appropriate scroll upon which were stated his name, masonic relations and virtues was placed over the plate.

Speeches were made by Gens. Peeples and Arnold, Samuel Lawrence, Capt. Luckie, Dr. Lee, Dr. White, W. L. Hubbard, Councilman Hape, Mr. Parkhurst and a Mr. Sage, from Columbus, Ohio. The affair was one not soon to be forgotten.

Death of Joseph B. Bridges.

We are pained to hear of the death of our esteemed fellow-citizen Joseph B. Bridges, at Fannin, Texas, on the 3rd instant, of consump ion. Mr Bridges was a fine business man, an exemplary gentleman and universally esteemed. We learn that his remains will be brought here for interment.

Not the Thief.

On last Monday Mrs Harmon, a lady who resides on Forsyth street, lost $30 in bills under suspicious circumstances. The money was stolen from her room during her absence. A mulatto girl employed on the place, named Fannie Wright, was arrested by the police Monday afternoon and locked up in the guard house. The girl stoutly protested her innocence, and as the evidence against her was entirely circumstantial, she was yesterday discharged. The money, however, has not yet been found.

EVERYBODY SHOULD BE CAREFUL to give prompt attention and rational treatment to a severe Cold—or a racking Cough—as these are commonly the chief primary symptoms of a disordered state of the Lungs, involving a tendency to develop into a settled Consumption. Persons of a delicate constitution, or those having weak or unsound Lungs, should be especially solicitous to treat the earliest symptoms of a Cold, in order to head off more dangerous complications; prudently keep by you, therefore, Dr. Jayne's Expectorant, that you may administer at once a judicious curative, during the first stages of any Throat or Lung disorder, for not only are special eye pictures of these complaints more tractable and easily controlled then, but the general strength and tone of the system has not had time to be seriously affected, and is therefore more amenable to the recuperative and healing properties of the Expectorant. A little attention to what may seem a trifling Cold, may save you from the fate a lingering Consumptive.

How Awfully Culpable

Must be those afflicted with Consumption, Bronchitis, Asthma, or any disease of the Lungs, Throat or Chest, who neglect to use Dr. Tutt's Expectorant after reading the following letter, written by one of the most estimable ladies in the south:

SAVANNAH, GA., April 28, 1873.

GENTLEMEN—In gratitude for the benefit I have derived from the use of your Expectorant, I would add my testimony to its wonderful virtues. A deep-seated cough, with a dreadful tightness of the chest, reduced to difficulty of breathing. I was induced to try your Expectorant, and it gave almost immediate relief. I took six bottles and am now perfectly restored. It is about five months since I used it, and I have not had an attack since. It has been a great blessing to me, and I cannot afford to be without it. I cheerfully recommend it to all who are suffering or threat disease. Very respectfully,

ROLLICKING REX.

MORE OF THE PREPARATIONS FOR THE PAGEANT AND BALL.

It is wonderful how rapidly the public interest has become excited over the coming of

REX AND HIS RETINUE.

The ladies are ransacking the city for the bright and beautiful materials of their costumes, and the gentlemen are racking their brains in hardly less troublesome agony over the question of "what shall I wear?" Between the two we are certain of witnessing one of the most gorgeous displays that ever won new honors to Rex in this, his gayest capital.

THE ROYAL COLORS

are flying in every part of the city. Whitehall, Peachtree, Marietta, Decatur, and other streets, are bedecked almost at every rod with the yellow and black worked up into banners and streamers of fantastic designs. All the loyal subjects of his jovial majesty are expected to display these ensigns upon the outer-walls of their places of business at once, there to remain until the royal visitor has departed into his other and further provinces.

A TRUE CARNIVAL DAY

is what the 5th inst is designed to be. While it is the appointed day for the celebration of the "T N M B," that fact does not debar others, who may desire to mask and have the liberty of the streets from doing so throughout the forenoon and up to the hour that the procession moves. Every man, woman and child in the city has full right to dress in fantastic garb and appear masked, and it is hoped that the streets upon that day will be crowded with these merry maskers, as are the streets of Rome, Paris and New Orleans at the famous Mardi Gras festivals. It must be remembered however, that any improper character thus appearing, or engaging in unseemly or indecent conduct, will lead their prompt arrest by the police. Rex's day must be enjoyed, but must not be profaned.

"THE UNATTACHED."

The lord of the unattached, who has charge of all those persons who appear in the procession masked and costumed, but who are not members of the brotherhood, will be pleased to have as many of the citizens as possible come out and join the triumphal march. Every one will be welcome whom it is proper to have in the procession, and all may properly be there who are not of disreputable character. We would urge upon all who can to join this portion of the grand procession.

LINE OF MARCH

We present below the latest edict from Carnival Palace, to which is attached the sign-manual of Hijim, and we vouch for its authenticity. Our readers may find the following programme therein set forth, and go about their preparations for participating in or witnessing the royal pageant, which we are now able to say will be one of the most beautiful and novel ever upon our streets.

EDICT XII.

His most jovial majesty is herein pleased to promulgate the following as final order for the guidance of his followers on January 6th, 1876:

1. All persons who may desire to join the procession, will convene at the city hall at 12 m., observing, however, the following restrictions: No one will be permitted to join the procession who is not in mask; and to the end that our presence may be duly honored the most exemplary beavior is commanded. Persons improperly attired, bad behavior and indecent proceedings, will meet with summary expulsion and arrest by the city authorities.

2. Persons desiring to exhibit advertising paraphernalia will show the royal colors, black and yellow, as may seem fit and proper to them. Drivers of vans, carts and other vehicles intended for the display shall appear in masks and display the royal colors in a conspicuous manner.

3. Promptly at 12 o'clock, the royal cavalcade will arrive in front of the city hall then and there to receive the city's keys.

4. As the king and his followers march toward the city hall and are there being properly received, the lord of the unattached will proceed with the formation of independent maskers and advertisements, in such manner as was to him directed.

5. His majesty attended by the guards and court will head toward Hunter street and then proceed along the following line of march:

Up Hunter street to Pryor turning to the right, following Pryor street, until the junction of Peachtree is reached; turning to the left and marching down to Marietta street, thence to Broad, crossing the bridge, continuing along Broad to Hunter from Hunter into Whitehall, thence continuing to Peters street, marching up Peters to Forsyth, from Forsyth into Mitchell, along Mitchell into Whitehall, and down that street to Alabama, thence into Loyd on the left, and reaching Decatur proceed up that street into Marietta, turning to the right into Walton street, thence into Peachtree again, turning to the right into Marietta and be dismissed at the Opera house.

6. Unseemly noises such as firing guns, pistols and fire crackers, are especially forbid. The blowing of tin horns so grates upon his majesty's nerves, that no less than ten thousand small boys were recently slain, and their bleached bones now lie on the steppes of Russia as a solemn warning that this will not be tolerated.

7. His majisty being fond of merry making and jolity, further commands that after the parade, and indeed before the royal assemblage, any and all devices of innocent amusement are allowed, and the young and old are particularly required to turn loose the grand canals of fun.

8. His majesty hears with pleasure of the preparations made for his coming, and for his last message recommends a general relaxation for everyone.

HIJIM, Chamberlain.

THE DECORATIONS.

The ladies and gentlemen are now at work decorating the carnival and banquet halls, at DeGive's opera house, and all who desire to honor his Majesty and see that his entree and stay is full of pleasure are requested to lend a helping hand in this good work, and to report at DeGive's at their earliest opportunity.

THE SUPPER

is all provided for and will be indeed a right royal feast. Arrangements are such as to prevent the "scrowging" that was experienced last year.

LETTERS OF INQUIRY.

"Lotta" writes to ask, "will ladies be permitted to enter and engage in the dance who are not dressed en costume?" We state it as the inflexible rule that all who participate in the dancing must be in mask and costume, or have over their ball or party dress a domino of cambric or other material. This rule applies equally to gentlemen and ladies, but will not interfere with those who only desire to sit in the dress circle and not engage in the dance.

"Flower Girl" says that her father and mother desire to attend, but not to engage in the dancing and asks: "Are they compelled to come in costume and masked, both or either?" We answer that they need not bother themselves about either costume or mask, as those who enter as spectators will occupy the seats in the dress circle and have the privilege of promenading during the intervals, and will be admitted at the door without mask or costume upon such statements.

"A clerk" writes to ask "if the business men of the city cannot be prevailed upon to give their employes a half-holiday on Rex." We remark that it is understood a resolution to that effect has been adopted by the brotherhood, and will be presented to our business men for their consideration. It is earnestly hoped that the "bosses," will give the poor hopper-grasses—we mean counter-hoppers—a chance!

Mrs. G writes to thank the authorities for prohibiting the firing of pistols, fire-crackers, etc., and blowing of "distraction horns" on Rex day. Mrs. G vouches that all the ladies will approve this action.

THE MAYOR AND COUNCIL have accepted the invitation to appear in a body as a part of the procession and will do so.

The procession promises to cover a good long piece of ground, and the more the merrier.

NO TIME TO TARRY.

An old negro came into the ... to pick up some little enjoyment during the holiday season. As he walked about he was deeply impressed by the ... ity of the royal colors of the mighty Rex, (the carnival flags being yellow and black), and finally he struck a rap'd pace out of town.

"What you gwine so fast?" said Zake who met him.

"Back to de country! Yer don't tink I'm gwine to camp 'round hyar whar dere's so much small-pox and deth, do yer?"

"You'se gone crazy! dere ain't no small-pox in Atlanty!"

"Dat's too thin! I've been dar, and seed too many yaller flags on de small pox hawspittles in de war! I'm a trottin, you mind me!" and he continued his migration.

GOLDEN FRUIT.

THE OPERATIONS OF ONE FIRM FOR A MONTH.

That Atlanta is rapidly becoming a wholesale center can no longer be questioned. It is not now confined to a single line. Dry goods, groceries, clothing, coal, shoes, furniture, fish, brandy, crackers, etc, are only a part of the catalogue. COURT OF ORDINARY.

The regular monthly term of the court of ordinary for probate business was held yesterday, his honor, Judge Pittman, presiding. The following petitions were taken up and granted:

Of Ezeal Wise, minor, choosing Thomas Scrutchins her guardian.

Of Mary and H. Fleck, minors, choosing E. Mercer as their guardian.

Of John C. Evins for letters of guardianship of Lewis Peacock, Chasseur A. Peacock, Augustus Peacock and Emma R. Peacock.

Of Farah N. Barnes, for letters of administration, with the will annexed, on the estate of Joseph F. Barnes, deceased.

Of Elizabeth J. Scrutchins, minor, choosing Thomas Scrutchins as her guardian.

Of Laura Johnson and Charles Johnson, minors over fourteen years of age, choosing Mrs. Piety Johnson as guardian of their property.

Of Julia Rattel, for letters of administration on the estate of Haven Rattel, deceased.

Of W. Williams, minor over fourteen years of age, choosing Henry Wooding as her guardian.

APPOINTMENT OF ROAD COMMISSIONERS.

Judge Pittman, the ordinary, yesterday made the following appointment of road commissioners for this county:

FULTON COURT OF ORDINARY, January Term, 1876.

It is ordered that the following named persons be, and are hereby appointed commissioners of roads in and for the several militia districts in said county, to serve the time required by law, to-wit:

North Atlanta, 1234th.—A. F. Hurt, J. M. Liddel, R. S. Waters, J. P.

South Atlanta, 1016th.—Nathan Massey, John E. Wyly, James D. McConnell, N. P. Hall, 530th.—M. A. M. Shaver is the polite clerk.

Mangan, John M. C. Reed.

Stone, 479th.—R. B. Megee, Wm. F. Poole, J. M. Bryant, J. P.

Cass's, 469th.—James I. Miller, Wm. R. Hoop, Moses Wood.

Bell Head, 722d.—John A. Langford, M. D. Mallio, G. R. Jarrall, J. P.

Oak Grove, 1100th.—Samuel Power, J. S. Head, Seaborn Jones, J. P.

LEAH MORDECAI.

The new book by Mrs Belle Kendrick Abbotts receiving, and can but receive at the hand of the press the most gratifying encomiums. It is certainly a work of great merit, and the story of Leah Mordecai will be read by thousands, who will be enchained by its interest and deeply touched by its pathos. A criticism of the book has been missed, but that or another will appear. In the mean time, let every lover of a really fine work of fiction procure a copy of Leah Mordecai.

THE TREASURY LOSS.

In conversation with reporters in Augusta the other day, Hon B H Hill, who has been retained by the sureties upon the bond of ex-Treasurer Jones, to defend the suit to be instituted by the state, made the following statements, which are worthy of note in the case:

The reporter of the Chronicle and Sentinel Mr Hill said:

"I represent him (Jones) before the courts, but I do not know that there will be any occasion for me to represent him before the legislature."

Reporter—"But in case of an impeachment?"

Mr Hill—"Well, an attempt might be made to impeach him, but it would not be successful. In the event that such a movement was made I should represent him as counsel before the legislature."

Reporter—"Could he be impeached after dismissal from office?"

Mr Hill—"Yes; there is a provision of the code on the subject. But Jack Jones cannot be successfully impeached. He is as innocent of taking any of the state's money as the angel Gabriel himself. He is an honest, upright man, and I know he did nothing wrong. That $172,000 of the people's money has disappeared is a fact, but Mr Jones had nothing to do with it."

To the reporter of the Constitutionalist he remarked, in substance, that "he had been retained by the bondsmen of Colonel Jones. He defended the ex-treasurer very warmly, and said there was not a more honest man in the state of Georgia. No doubt the state had been swindled out of the sum of $172,000, but it was through no fault of Colonel Jones."

HYMENEAL.

The following marriage licenses were issued by the ordinary during the past week:

WHITES.

Mr. William H Penn and Miss Martha A Hill.

Mr. Bartlett Goodison and Miss Elizabeth Holcombe.

Mr. Augustus R Churchill and Miss Odell.

Mr. William A Jett and Miss S A Irwin.

AN ALABAMA DEBTOR.

A merchant in this city has received the following letter from a man doing business in an Alabama town, and who owes the merchant a bill for goods. The letter is a double curiosity, both for its orthographic and grammatical characteristics, and for its non chalance. We give it from the original, verbatim et literatim:

SHERIFF'S SALES.

On yesterday, the 1st Tuesday in the month, Sheriff Perkerson sold the following property:

Lot D. W. Worsham to J. A. Richardson for $0.

The machinery and grounds of the Rondeau furniture factory to J. M. Ball for $1,1[illegible].

A lot, the property of R. J. Johnson, to Wade Wallace for $74.

The lot and residence of James Atkins, at East End, to William Markham for $3,7[illegible].

A quantity of furniture, the property of I. S. Clark, was sold to various parties for $645.

PERSONAL INFORMATION.

Information is wanted of a person named W Brow. By calling upon the postmaster will be benefitted.

The postmaster also asks that if any old resident about Atlanta of 30 years ago knew Flois Williams, who moved to Houston, Mississippi, between the years 1840 and 1850, he will let it be known at the post-office, to Governor Foley.

The postmaster also desires information concerning Patrick Nagle, who is supposed to be living in or about this city.

EXECUTIVE NOTES.

A REWARD

has been offered by the governor for the apprehension and delivery to the sheriff of Murray county of James Pettit and James F Bohle, charged with the murder of B F Crose, on the 5th of December last. The amount of the reward is $250.

RETURNED.

Col. P W Alexander, private secretary of the governor, has returned, and looks well after having all the commands of his friends in Columbus to help them celebrate Christmas in handsome style.

NOT WELL POSTED.

The following letters are held in the Atlanta postoffice for want of proper posting:

THE RAILROAD CROSSINGS.

EDITORS CONSTITUTION: In looking over your paper of Friday the 31st, I saw a conversation with Col. Adair in reference to running the street cars up Alabama street to Broad, then across the bridge to the turn-table with a view to remedy the nuisance—the difficulty of the Whitehall crossing. He says it cannot be done for several reasons which he gives, even if it could be. Then there are Pryor street, and Loyd street crossings, which are becoming more an more dangerous as the city is being built up, the buildings prevent our seeing the engines or knowing in which direction they are till we reach the track when it may sometimes be too late to prevent a very serious accident.

There is one way to obviate the difficulty altogether, that is for the railroads to run around the city and have their freight depots entirely out of the way let only the passenger trains run under the union depot. As they have their regular hours for coming and going, there need be no shifting or switching of boxes or engines, and better than all no fear of accident at any of the crossings.

In my humble opinion this is the only common sense way of getting rid of the trouble, and I hope the good people of Atlanta will insist upon this plan until they compel our "City Fathers" to take action in the matter, then the day may not be far distant when the nuisance (it certainly is one,) shall be taken from the centre of our city.

Yours truly,
X. Y. Z.

COLD WATER TEMPLARS.

Last night was the regular night for the installation of the officers of Taylor Hill Cold Water Temple. This temple was organized on the 28th of August last, and numbers some sixty members.

The meeting was well attended last night. After the transaction of business, Miss Sallie Crawford read a sparkling essay on "What I know about boys." It was well written and read with grace and ease. The assistant superintendent of Cold Water Templars being present, with the aid of Grand Marshal W. C. Dickson, then installed the following officers:

W C T., J W Swann,
W V T, Nora Crawford,
W R S., H Noorthen,
W F S., Sallie Crawford,
W T, Jeff Skinner,
W Chaplain, Dick Swann,
W M., Will Dalton,
W D M., Mollie Allen,
R H S., Mamie Kendrick,
L H S., Mary Young,
W I G., John Evans.
E L La Fontaine is P W C T.

There is a quiet earnestness and steady determination exhibited by the members of this temple to achieve great results that is worthy of commendation. The gravity and zeal of the officers is well sustained by the decorum and fidelity of the members. We were struck with the exemplary behavior of even the smallest boys in the room. The female members will compare favorably with that of some of the best lodges in the state.

At the conclusion of the installation services, the assistant superintendent made remarks congratulating the temple on their success.

COURT OF COMMERCE.

SALOON OPENING.

"The Two Orphans" is the original title of a new saloon, which was opened in this city last evening at No. 13 Peachtree street. The room has been tastefully furnished, and it is supplied with choice liquors, both domestic and imported. See advertisement

AMOS' LITTLE TROUBLES.

The New Year brought trouble to that good old negro Amos. Yesterday he entered General G.'s law office and seemed to be in deep distress.

"What you got a case, Amos?" inquired the general.

"Yes, General, I's got a powful bad case, sah!" said Amos, shaking his head gloomily.

"What's the trouble?"

"I wants to git me a revorce, General—me and dat gal what's been my wife is fallen out, sah!"

"Well, that is bad: let us see if you have grounds for a divorce. What has she been doing?"

"Why, sah, she's jis been particularly raising de old Harry round de house for de las' four weeks. Fust thing fo'most she tuck all de money she could find 'bout de house ter buy Christmas gifs fur herself, and when I axe her fur de money back agin, she jis cussed me out from head to heels, sah!" urged Amos.

"What else?"

"Well, seckonly, sah, she cavited two of her sisters to come dar an' quarter on me fur de whole ob de holidays, but my bed fur 'em to sleep on, an' when I 'fused to gib it up, an' got in it myself, she cut de cords and lemme collapse through onto de flo' and den spilt de biskit board ober my head, right dar, sah!", pointing to a sore place on his head.

"Anything more?"

"I stood dat purty well, general, and nebber 'nuffin more ob her meanness twixt dat time and de odder night when dey gib a party down here to dat nigger boarding house on Decatur street. Den she come to me and sez, 'Amos, you doesn't go to parties and my secon' cousin Josefus is up hyar an' I want you to lend him dem black suit of Sunday clo's ob yours;' now general, dat hog-eye Josefus wuz dat gal's sweetheart 'fore I married her, and dat talk made me madder 'n blazes, an' I upsot things 'round dar in a hurry!"

"What did you do?"

"I got on my mussel an for an ole man I'm a boss nigger when I gits started! I jis' reached out dis hyar right han', an' fotched her a biff on de mouf dat made her think dar was a bone fackry started under her nose, flung her down de back sta'rs, and emutied 'bout a dozen flower boxes full of yearth on her! 'Bout dat time Josefus he come in de gate, and he no more dan sot his foot on de step 'fore I jumped in among him, and I tell yer de hones' truf, general, dere aint nuff ob dat nigger's hide lef' on him to patch yer slipper wi' now! And dats how I come to a reverce. 'Kase dis marryin' 'mong de niggers now-a-days is got down to a leaferin', cutthroat bizness, anyhow."

Amos was given full legal advice in the case, but it didn't quite suit his side of the matter.

THE JUDGESHIPS.

There is no latest phase to the now duplex conundrum: "Who are to be the judges?" It is definitely understood that Judge Hopkins will resign on or about the 15th inst. He has rented and is fitting up an office over Phillips & Crew's book store, and rumor says he has already ordered a new sign.

As the governor will hardly name the city judge before the assembling of the legislature, it is taken for granted that Judge Hopkins will slightly hasten his resignation to the date above given, so that the governor may present both names at once and secure the action of the senate at one sitting.

OUR BANKS.

The Bank of the State of Georgia on the 3rd declared a dividend of 5 per cent., payable on demand.

The condition of the State National Bank will be found in another column. The showing is a fine one, and evidences the superior management of its affairs by its officers.

In another column will be found the statement of the Bank of the State of Georgia. The excellent showing reflects credit upon its official management.

IN SUBURBS.

It always affords us pleasure to note each and every evidence of improvement, which manifests itself in our midst.

We accepted an invitation to attend the closing exercises of the "Rock Spring" select school, situated four miles from the city, on the Plaster road, on the evening of 31st ult.

In this little community, three years ago, there existed nothing of especial interest, or that distinguished it from the ordinary country locality, but now the visitor cannot fail to recognize unmistakable evidences of progress.

First among which is the presence, in almost every dwelling, of a musical instrument, and the children all received instructions in the delightful art of music. And in the church, a very neat and comfortable structure, we find a splendid organ, which, under the management of an accomplished musician, Miss M Sue Jones, is, on every Sabbath, made to discourse soul stirring music to the edification of its members and the glory of the Divine Master.

The exhibition under the management of Prof. J. R. Haskins and Miss M. Sue Jones, preceptress, was a most enjoyable affair.

A carefully arranged and well executed programme highly entertained the audience for three hours; the children, almost without exception, acquitting themselves in a manner which reflected much credit upon the culture and ability of their instructors.

We hope to be pardoned for making mention of a few features which especially interested us.

Of the instrumental performances, that of Miss Allie Bearse was especially fine.

The vocal solos of Misses Jessie Johnson and Ida Piaster were very sweet and expressive.

These little girls, though but fourteen years old, possess voices of extraordinary sweetness and purity, as well as vocal powers of rare merit.

The vocal duet, "What are the wild Waves saying," between Miss Johnson and Mr. Haskins, was exceptionally fine, and was rendered in a highly artistic manner.

The acting was all good. "The Court Scene" between Charlie McCrary and Frank Piaster, and "The Bet" between Robt. Hope and Johnnie Johnson brought down the house.

The acting of Miss Mattie and Minnie Smith, Miss Lizzie Bearse and Master Robt. Hape deserve special mention as being almost true to life.

Some excellent recitations occured at intervals. Master Dan Johnson in "Daring Green and his Flying machine" was simply immense and Miss Johnson in the "Wonderful one Horse Shay" was loudly applauded.

Mr. Haskins, at intervals, sang ride splitting comic songs which cannot fail to promote digestion and dispel the blues.

The closing scenes were a few pointed and practical remarks by Mr. Haskins, followed by a chorus by the entire school.

The school will be continued this year with Miss M. Sue Jones as instructress, under whose able and efficient direction grand results may be anticipated in 1876.

Our thanks are due our clever and genial host and hostess, Mr. J Pearse and lady, for hospitalities extended; and in conclusion we say, God speed Rock Spring.

EXCELSIOR.

FULTON SUPERIOR COURT

HON. JOHN L. HOPKINS, JUDGE.

Court met yesterday morning at its hour and transacted the following business:

Simms vs. Phillips. Continued on account of absence of J. L. Richmond, a material witness, for whom attachment was ordered to be issued.

Elsewauld vs. the Southern express company. Argued and submitted to the judge, who has held up his decision.

Court then adjourned until this morning.

The cases for to-day are: Smith vs. Irwin & Redwin; Calhoun vs. Kelley.

THE CORRUPTION OF THE TIMES.

The church that walks in truth will observe a strict and unbending morality. Love to God is always attended by love to man; love to man always manifests itself in regard for human interests. Perhaps at no period, certainly during a peaceful period of our history as a nation has there been such flagrant and wide spread contempt of the sacredness of human rights. Never were the old fashioned virtues of veracity and common honesty at a greater discount. Scarcely a day elapses that the wires do not flash their light on some gigantic fraud perpetrated by men in high places. There are few who have long held offices of public trust, the lustre of whose escutcheons are not dim with the breath of popular susp

—She wanted her better half to step into the store and "take just one little peep at that lovely sealskin sacque." He hesitated and was lost. When they came out she was radiant in the new garment, and his face was as long as your arm.

—Conflict of ideas. A New Orleans paper, which prints a long editorial headed: "The treasure of wickedness profits nothing," has its first page entirely occupied with the advertisement of a huge lottery swindle.

—Success in life is very apt to make us forget the time when we were not such. It is just so with the frog on the lily pad; he can't remember when he was a tadpole, but other folks can.

—When a man gets married it is customary to speak of him as leading to the altar a fair young bride. The fact is the old man generally leads up the bride, and stands by to see that she is squarely tied.

—Next year will be a great year for this American nation. It is a leap year, presidential election year, and the centennial anniversary of our independence, and for the purpose of giving us a rest during so much excitement there will be one extra Sunday, or fifty-three in all.

—Aha! Let us get out of here! It is again stated that the accumulation of ice at the pole will tip this earth over in a few thousand yeasy, and send the waters across the land in one tremendous, instantaneous douse. Let us move. One touch of nature will make the whole world "skin," and we don't want to see it.

—The muscular tissue of a wild boar lately shot in the forests of Saxony, was found by microscopic examination to be full of trichinæ. This is the first case in which this parasite has been found in the wild boar, it having been the general belief that only domesticated swine were ...

—A number of intelligent young men of Dubuque have formed a scientific class which is considering the subject of "light, water and heat." Just so, they meet in their secluded club-room, "light" the fire, "heat" the "water" for their whisky, and then these youthful scientists are fixed.—Burlington Hawkeye.

—Two gamblers have been converted by the Methodists in Portland, Oregon. One of them, upon his first attendance at a class meeting, handed to the leader a worn dice box and the dice. "Those have been my means of livelihood for years," he said, "and I've become so expert with them that I can beat a game in which dice are used against me. ... other trade, and it is like ...petency for poverty to give ...." Nobody doubted the genuineness of that conversion.

...hen the new church at Vestal ...re, N. Y., was finished on the outside recently, the contractor, to fill the population to put a gilded ball on the steeple, gilded a nearly round gallon jug, and, turning it with the bottom up, placed it upon the spire. The jug, thus placed, did not impress the Vestal Centre people as a proper symbol to worship under, so some of them rebelled. A William Tell stepped to the front, and from the first crack of his rifle the jug split into fragments and fell off.

Elements of Bone, Brain and Muscle.

The food contains the elements of bone, brain and muscle, and in a healthy system, properly nourished, the manufacture of these bodily constituents is uninterrupted, night or day. On the other hand, when digestion or as imitation are imperfect, the manufacture is hindered, and the destructive not being counteracted by the reparative processes of Nature, the system is threatened with early decay. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters are peculiarly fitted to overcome the causes which lead to an untimely decadence of the vital energies, removing, as they do, all obstacles as complete digestion and assimulation of the food, and restraining an undue waste of physical substances. For the loss of strength consequent upon depleting diseases, they are the best possible remedy, and their bracing effects upon the system enable it to withstand hurtful atmospheric influences inductive of malaria jan1—deod1w&wlt

Delays are always dangerous in matters pertaining to health as well as other interests. A slight cold excites no alarm, perhaps it will get well of itself if let alone, possibly it may, but perhaps it will not. A bottle of the celebrated Home Stomach Bitters is a sure fortification against the attacks of this insidious and universal foe.

Ricks House and Furniture,
CARTERSVILLE, GEORGIA.

THIS splendid new Hotel has recently changed hands, but not closed as has been reported, and is now under the management of W. W. Ricks, its builder, who has furnished a portion of it, and is prepared to accommodate, and respectfully invites the traveling public, visitors and those desiring board with or without rooms, to call on him.

Although the business has paid me very well what time I have had it, I would rent my house to a more experienced and competent party, who would buy my furniture, which is new. W. W. RICKS, dec2—dtf Proprietor.

FOR THE
NEW JERSEY CHEMICAL COMPANY,
SAVANNAH, GEORGIA.

The W. & C. Guano,
A Specialty for CASH for 1876, at
$38 Per Ton
FREE ON CARS AT SAVANNAH.

I will sell ONE TON OR ONE THOUSAND at $38 PER TON, CASH IN HAND. All orders shipped on the day they are received by me.

The analysis of the W. & C. for 1876 shows about 15 PER CENT. AVAILABLE PHOSPHORIC ACID and 2 PER CENT. AMMONIA, obtained from best Peruvian Guano, which makes it equal to 4 PER CENT AMMONIA, obtained from fish.

The W. & C. is also 10 to 15 PER CENT. DRIER than most superphosphates, especially those ammoniated by fish, and is therefore CHEAPER BY 10 to 15 PER CENT. GRANGES and HEAVY DEALERS will find it to their interest to correspond with me.
